

Press Release

Thursday Nights at the Bandstand Brings Back Live Music to Unionville Millennium Bandstand

June, 2022, Unionville, Ontario – We're back!!! Our popular, free summer live music series “Thursday Nights at the Bandstand” returns for a 4-event series in July and August with a post pandemic return of live music at Unionville's Millennium Bandstand at the corner of Main Street and Fred Varley Drive. Organized by community-based Unionville Presents and funded by dedicated community spirited sponsors and Celebrate Markham, the series attracts talented Canadian and International musical artists to the outdoor Millennium Bandstand for all to enjoy free of charge. The 2022 series performances will be on July 14, 28, August 11 and 25 Thursday evenings 7:30 to 9 p.m.

This year's outstanding line-up kicks off on July 14 with Epic Eagles featuring the incomparable harmonies of the Eagles. Mamma Mia!!, ABBA Revisited returns on July 28 with their tribute to ABBA, one of the most commercially successful bands of all times and now back on tour celebrating the 50th year of their first recording. The incomparable Rocket Man Elton Rohn with his magnificent performance and outstanding tribute to Elton John's greatest hits returns on August 11. Thursday Nights at the Bandstand 2022 bring Back Live Music 4-performance season closes on August 25 with the Magic of Motown featuring George St. Kitts ensemble of outstanding musicians and the sounds of Motown.

Thursday Nights at the Bandstand is financially supported by our dedicated and committed sponsors. The series is entirely funded by the support of the Forrestall Group's CaTech Systems and Nicom IT, Pfaff BMW Markham, Village Grocer, Crupi Law, Yamaha Music. Community builders Kylemore Communities, Remington Group, Compass Hill, Minto Group and Watford Group continue their valued support. And Unionville Main Street supporters UBIA, Unionville Arms, Minken Employment Lawyers, Sylvia Morris Century 21, Jim Mitchell, Dwight Dehne and Ambiyan provide the local Main Street financial support. The Village Grocer provides a second to none catered pre-event meal each week for all of our bands and tech's.

Additional services and support are provided by Celebrate Markham, the City of Markham, photographer Robert Hyland, media partner Markham Review, website partner HOBO Computer Services and sound production by Chris MacBride Productions and Bespoke Audio Visual.

For line-up details and additional information check out www.unionvillepresents.com or contact Bill Dawson at info@unionvillepresents.com.

Performance Line-up

July 14 Epic Eagles

July 28 ABBA REVISITED

August 11 Elton Rohn

August 25 Magic of Motown